1973 Ferrari Daytona Spyder (Conversion)

Delivered new to Maranello Concessionaires in July 1973, Chassis 16643 was converted to a Spyder by Greypaul in the late 1980's. The conversion was done at great expense and is fully documented with both photographs and receipts. The quality of work is exceptional with factory standards of fit and finish. Having covered only 41,500 miles the car is mechanically very strong and drives as it should with minimal scuttle shake, a fantastic experience. Finished in Rosso Corsa with Tan Daytona seats, this car represents a fantastic alternative to a Factory Spyder for obvious reasons.
